

BELLAGIO CONVENING 15 KEY TAKEAWAYS

1. Commitment to consolidate – bring our efforts together to align where possible to increase effectiveness and reduce redundancies
2. Create a narrative of survival and development
3. Clearly identify complicit parties (perpetrators)
4. Commit to a process of healing the wounded
5. Commit to dismantle anti-Black systems and processes
6. Develop strategies and plans that create reparative systems, structures, and organizations
7. Strengthen and build the capacity of organizations and formations leading reparations efforts
8. Identify and assemble scholars and experts that can support with research, analysis, and strategy development
9. Identify Heads of State with whom we can build our work at the international level
10. Develop strategies to enlist non-African allies
11. Engage faith institutions of all types to join in this work
12. Enlist foundations and other private and public philanthropy to engage in this work
13. Develop strategies for intergenerational engagement, particularly with a focus on engaging young people, increasing opportunities for intergenerational learning, dialogue, and collective action
14. Develop a clear strategy for engaging media. Understanding the role of building a narrative around our collective work (particularly global work), sharpen the ways in which we engage the various forms of media (television, radio, print, digital, etc) in ways that advance our cause
15. Determine the role of consensus-building especially considering the diversity of reparations advocacy groups, entities and individuals. Establish a core set of values that will underpin how we engage others
